

Houndsfield Headlines

7th May 2019
Issue 1

We hope you like our new look newsletter.

This will be published on the school website: www.houndsfield.school where it can be easily translated or downloaded.

The newsletter will include general information and regular updates on attendance, safeguarding and diary dates. We hope you like the new look and find it informative. This term has got off to a good start and there is lots planned for the weeks ahead.

Key Stage 2 SATs

Our Year 6 children will be taking their SATs assessments next week. Please ensure your child has a good breakfast and arrives at school every day on time. They also need a good sleep every night. We know that they are well prepared as they have worked exceptionally hard this year.

European Elections

The Park Suite will be used as a Polling Station and so Year 1 & 2 will be closed on Thursday 23rd May. All other year groups are open as usual.

Eid celebration

We will be holding a celebration event on the afternoon of Thursday 6th June. If you would like to contribute to the celebrations please let Dilek know. More information will follow.
